Creative Happenings in West Philly!

June 2–8, 2019

The Barnes: 20th and the Parkway | The Bank: 3750 Lancaster Avenue

Every month, the Barnes and PEC offer a week of FREE art and entertainment open to all. There's something for everyone!

Sunday, June 2, 2–5 pm, at the Barnes

PECO Free First Sunday Family Day

Free admission and family activities at the Barnes. Celebrate summer's arrival with global music and performances by Drum Like a Lady. Need a ride? Catch the FREE Barnes @ LoLa 38 Bus at the Bank at 1:15 pm, departing the Barnes at 4:30 pm.

Wednesday, June 5, 4–6 pm, at the Bank

Teen Open Studio

Margel Overton, music director at Boys' Latin of Philadelphia, will lead a jam session for teen musicians. Join us for great music, friends, and pizza. Ages 14 to 18. (Registration recommended: lola38.west@gmail.com)

Thursday, June 6, 5:30–7:30 pm, at the Bank

Barnes Presents!

For ages 21+. It's Black Music Month! Enjoy live music from local African American musicians. Barnes @ LoLa 38 celebrates art for all through live music, art, and community. BYOB happy hour and networking.

Saturday, June 8, Noon–2 pm, at the Bank

Family Art Workshops

Enjoy an afternoon of art making and outdoor games, and then pitch in to help spruce up our community space at the Bank. Free art supplies, instruction, and snacks.

Barnes @ LoLa 38 is supported by a grant from the William Penn Foundation.
