I have served on the @PeoplesEmergencyCenter Board for X years, and PEC is making great strides to address homelessness and poverty in Philadelphia. This year, I am asking you to create the change you wish to see with your support.

With nearly 50 years of experience, visionary leadership, and dedicated staff, they are investing significant time, and effort to create a learning culture of continuous quality improvement, which will enhance their data-driven decision-making and drive impact for families in need. With your contribution to this long-term investment, you'll give a new home, a first job, and a fresh start to someone. Give now: <https://donorbox.org/pecelevatingqualityoutcomes>.

Hello and I hope you are all well. I want to tell you about an organization that I am on the board of that changes the lives of families and youth experiencing homelessness and neighborhoods in Philadelphia. That group is People's Emergency Center. Their work gives families the opportunity for a better tomorrow. That's why I support PEC, and I hope you will too – give today at <https://donorbox.org/pecelevatingqualityoutcomes>.
